

27080 - He wants a list of books on al-raqaa'iq (heart softening reports)

the question

Could you please tell me the best books on al-raqaa'iq (heart softening reports)?.

Detailed answer

The best book of all for softening the heart is the Book of Allah, hence Allah calls it maw'izah (good advice) as He says (interpretation of the meaning):

“O mankind! There has come to you a good advice from your Lord (i.e. the Qur'aan, enjoining all that is good and forbidding all that is evil), and a healing for that which is in your breasts, — a guidance and a mercy (explaining lawful and unlawful things) for the believers”

[Yoonus 10:57]

There is no book that reforms hearts and heals them of disease like the Qur'aan. Hence the Muslim should not turn away from it towards other books. The Muslim should read Qur'aan a great deal with proper focus and humility, pondering the meanings. He will see the effect of that on his heart. He can also refer to one of the brief tafseers in order to understand the meanings of any verses that he finds difficult, such as the Tafseer of al-Sa'di (may Allah have mercy on him).

With regard to what the scholars have written on al-raqaa'iq (heart softening reports), their writings are many and varied. Some form parts of other books and some form separate books. In the books of hadeeth such as Saheeh al-Bukahari and Saheeh Muslim etc there are chapters on al-raqaa'iq. With regard to separate books, we have chosen the following list for you, but it should be noted that these books are simply a help: there is nothing wrong with the Muslim reading them and benefiting from them, but that should not replace reading and studying the Qur'aan.

Al-Bahr al-Raa'iq fi al-Zuhd wa'l-Raqaa'iq by Ahmad Fareed

Al-Zuhd wa'l-Raqaa'iq by 'Abd-Allah ibn al-Mubaarak, edited by Habeeb al-Rahmaan al-A'zami.
