

3149 - He works in a factory that makes tight and short clothes for women

the question

He works in a factory that makes tight and short clothes for women. Is it permissible for him to work there, or does he have a share in the burden of sin?

Detailed answer

We put the following question to Shaykh Muhammad ibn Saalih al-'Uthaymeen:

He replied (may Allaah preserve him):

It is haraam for him, because he is cooperating in sin and transgression.

And Allaah knows best.
